Darryl,

Well, it's been two years now and I have enjoyed every minute of it. Well, I'll miss you and I hope your next two years will be as good as I, hope mine will be. Stay as super as you are. Next year I hope you will keep Lydia and all of them in line.

Dear Darryl,

You are the most patient person I've ever met. Anyone who can help me with Algebra II without being histerick is patient.

I really appreciate all the help I have gotten through always nice and very smart! I know that you'll do something great like being president or something.

DEDICATION

Because of a never-ending desire to please and a continuous love for us, "his children", W. C. "Billy" Parker will always remain a favorite in our hearts. Every thought, word and action contains a spirit and proudness that will continue to be a part of the outstanding man that he is. His warmth, his vitality, his willingness to listen, and his desire to understand, have greatly inspired and touched the countless young minds that have sought his guidance.

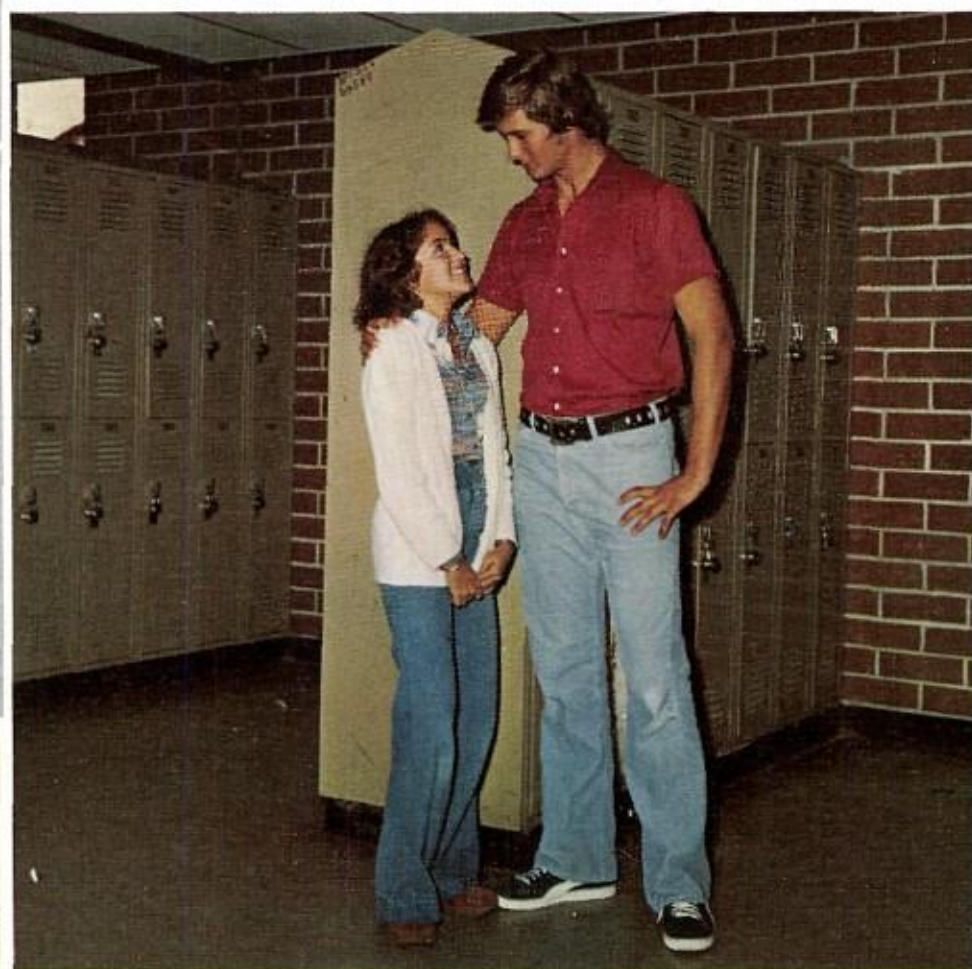

As a means of expressing our appreciation and our love, we dedicate the 1977 edition of the Wolfson Rhombus to Wendell C. Parker civilization.*

*The people we are, and hope to become, represent every part of society, every nation, every color, creed proudly lay as a gift of gratitude upon the lap of America.

STUDENT LIFE

And the children danced and celebrated the birth of their continuing life.

Homecoming

Our 1976 Homecoming proved that the spirit of the Pack is back to stay. The enthusiasm of the students and their participation in the week of festivities made for an exciting homecoming celebration. The annual door decoration inspired by the "Spirit" was a success contributed to by all. Hat Day, Teacher, Band, and Football Appreciation Day were highlighted during the week. The week's activities climaxed as Cindi Brown was crowned Homecoming Queen and the Pack defeated the Ed White Commanders soundly by a score of 48 to 6.

In all they gave and came to say, their profound existence will far out-live,
our own nonchalance.

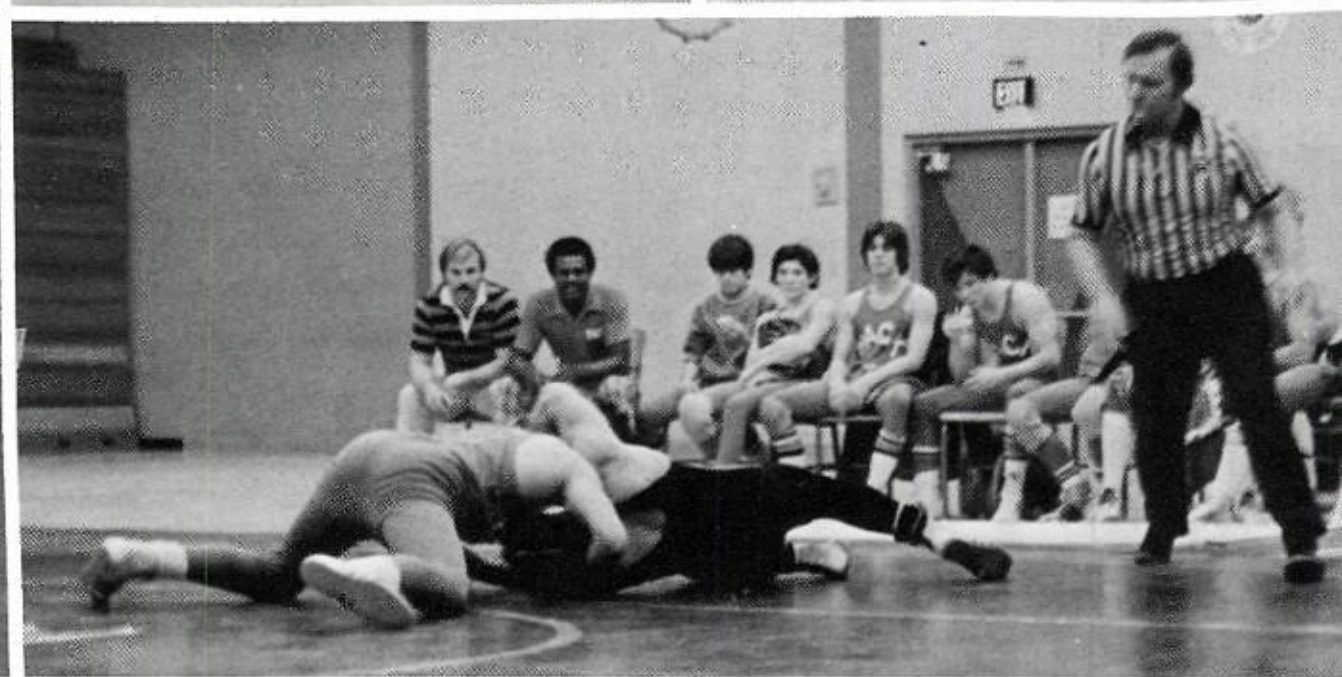

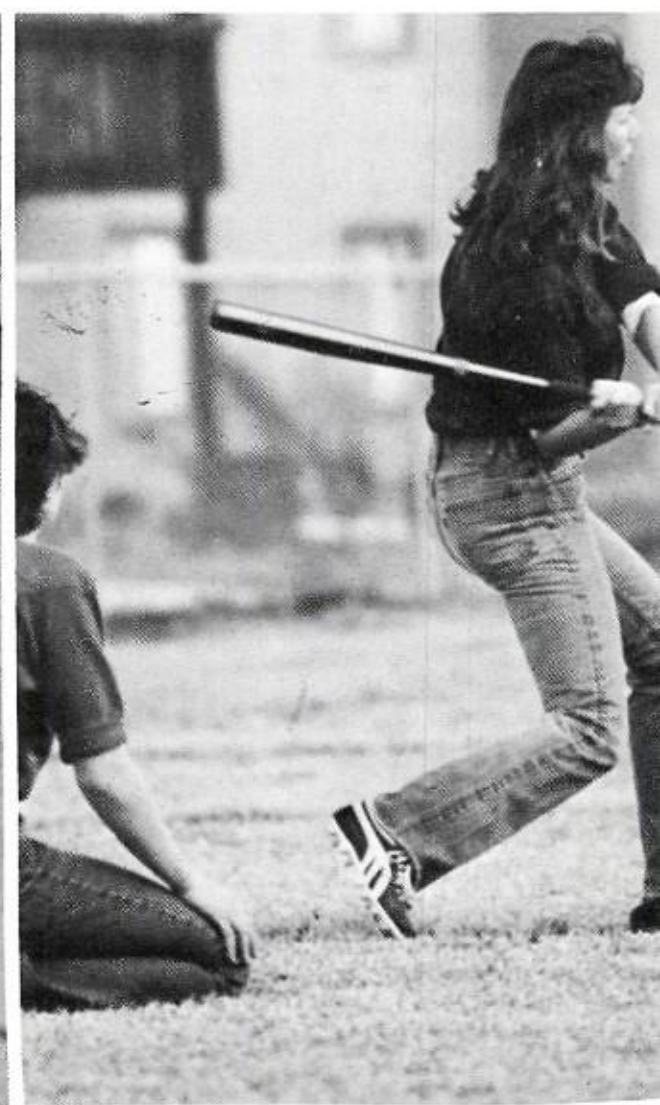

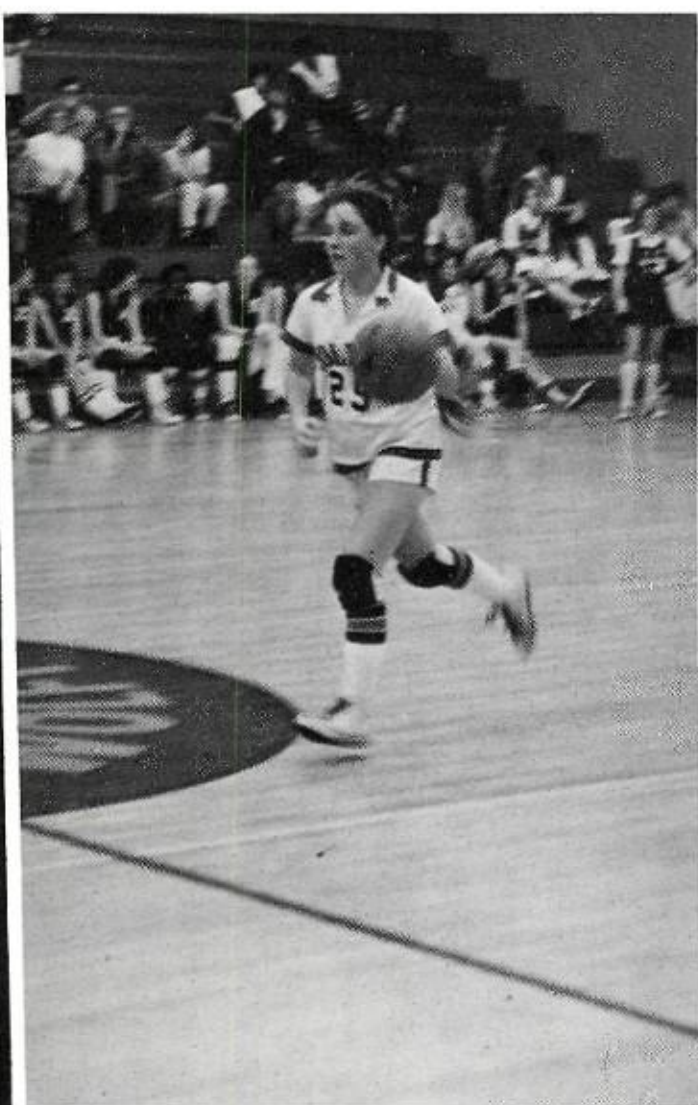

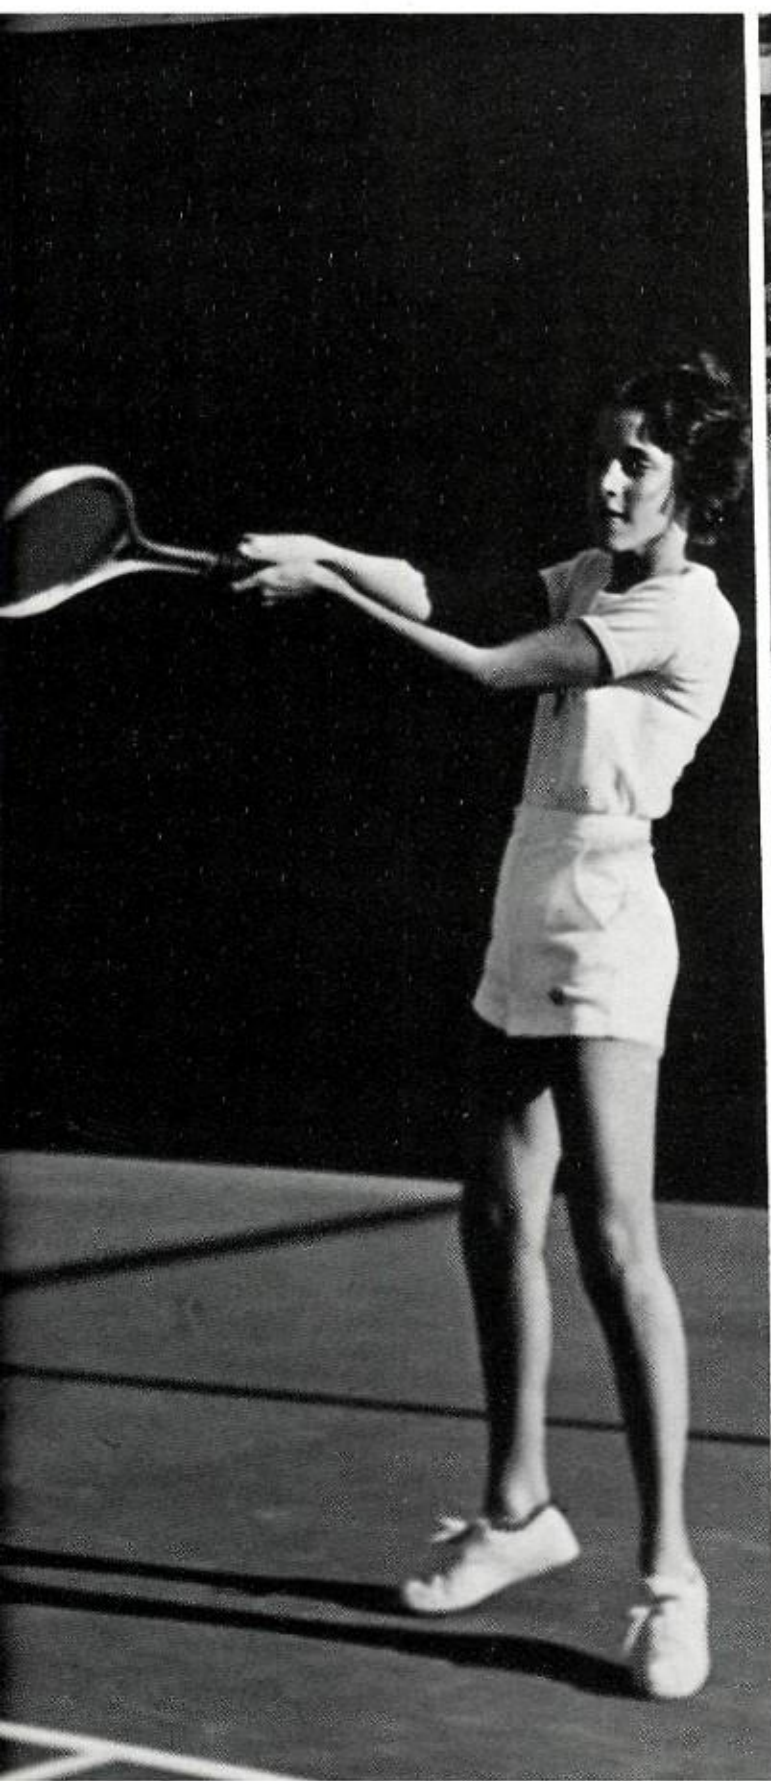

As unselfishly and proud,
as those of earlier moments, they came and stood looking out, knowing not of premeditated plans.

How wonderful for them, to live and experience that, which remains a dream to us.
To have a fortunate insight of those events that pass us by.

Beyond us now
in a world of perpetual time,
they shall judge us.
And wait for our hopeful awakening.

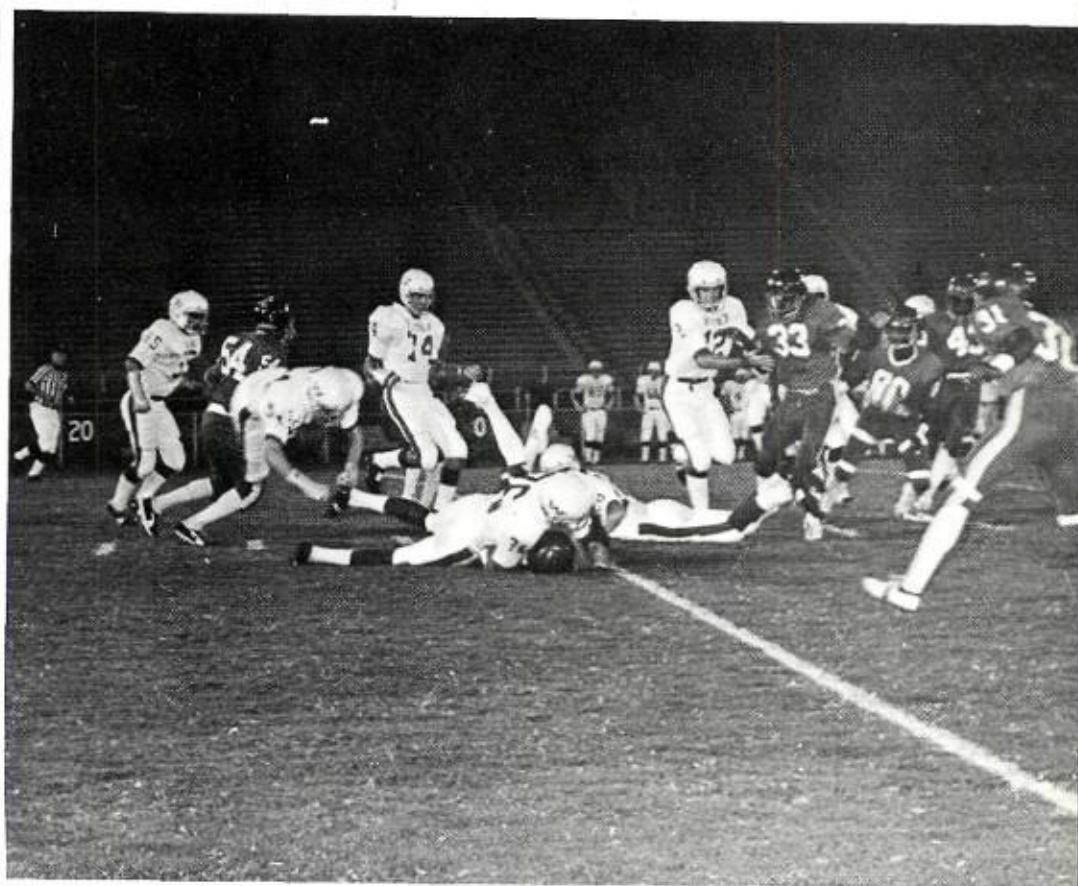

Colleen Huntley Walk

SPORTS

The athlete is one of a kind; a confident, talented figure who strives for the utmost in his life: the victories.

Varsity Football

In August, the Wolfpack was picked to be one of the top teams in the state. The Pack lived up to this prediction with a fine 10-1 record. Early season victories over Sandalwood and Raines had the Pack ranked No. 7 in the State. In our 3rd game we were upset by Forest. The Pack responded to the loss by ripping off 7 straight regular season victories scoring over 340 points for the season and playing excellent defense. The '76 Wolfpack will long be remembered for it's outstanding season, and being a member of the '76 pack is something the coaches and players will always take great pride in.

Hard Work Goes Into School Spirit And Pride

First game of the season and a traditionally hard fought ball game. The Pack scored 25 points to Sandalwoods 7.

Trailing by two points with time running out, the explosive Wolfpack offense erupted with a 47 yard bomb from Ernie Saltmarsh to "Rookie" Darryl Williams. This last minute drive enabled the Wolfpack to record its first win in recent years over the Raines Vikings in a Gator Bowl thriller--the final score ending up 28 points for the Wolfpack and 23 points for the Vikings.

On And On . . .

The fighting Wolfpack, although outmanned in size and speed had their finest hour in overcoming a fourteen point deficit in the first annual Elks' Bowl to turn back the Oakridge Pioneers of Orlando, 21-14.

Behind 14-0 well into the third quarter, the Wolfpack's devastating ground attack ran at will over the bigger Pioneers with the offensive line opening gaping holes for the swift stable of Pack backs to run through.

Memories,
The things we can't forget,
The things we can't close our minds to.
Hold on . . .
Tighter!
Don't let them slip away.
Age them with time.
Savor them with happiness
And love.
Don't let them sour
Or fade away.
Don't turn away friends.
Because like fond memories
Friends can fade and turn to dust.
They need care and Love,
The time to grow old,
To turn into cherished thoughts
And Memories.

THE BLIZZARD OF TIME

Time is like an endless blizzard.
A wheel of fleeting moments passing so quickly before my eyes. They all seem so alike, but as I look more closely, I realize that minutes are like snowflakes.
Each one is unique. There can never be another like it, so I try in vain to catch them all before they come to rest upon the ground.

Elyse M Backer

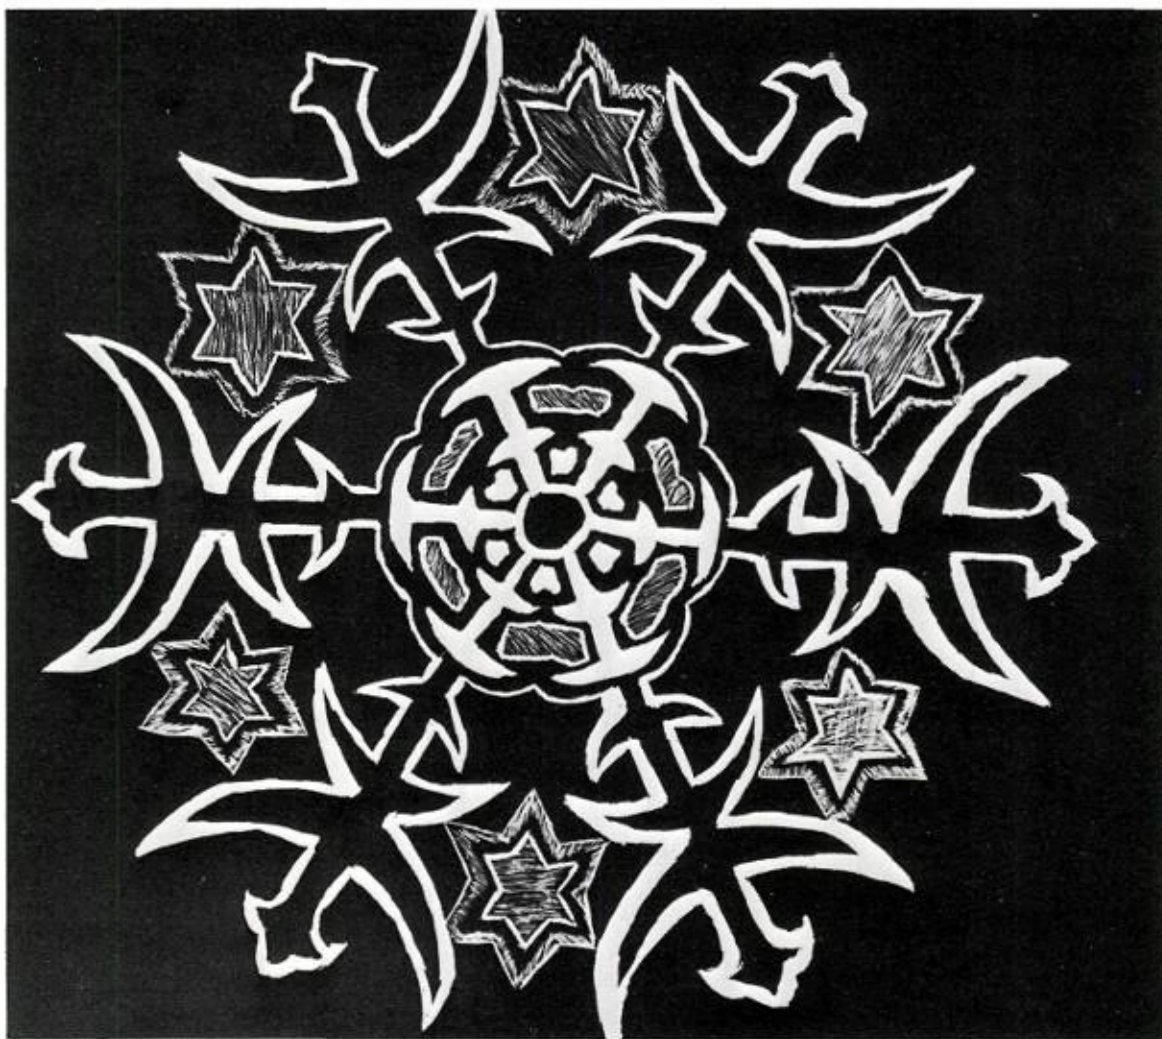

As each snowflake fell softly from the sky,
I felt as though my inner peace was returning with it.

As I walked out into the swirls of intricate light,
I watched as all the children emerged to stand and gaze at the wonder.
I lifted my face to the sky
in hopes of catching a few of those perfect jewels.
And, holding out my hand,
I smiled silently
as each small wonder melted upon my skin, the warmth quickly overpowering the cold.

There came to rest in the air,
a lingering silence
full of songs and whispered words.
Treasured thoughts for only the hopeful to hear.

It's strange how many miracles can come from a gray and bashful sky.
In such a short span of time,
we were given an endless amount of love.
Each of us came to understand that,
which comes but only once.
Perhaps the snow came,
just to lay a blanket of goodness upon our hearts.

Thank you so much for being around
When things have been bad and gotten me down;
When I needed a friend, someone to be close
To help with the things that hurt me the most.

Thank you my friend, for being so kind.
You have helped tremendously to ease my mind
From the absence of my friend who, to me was so dear.
I thank God in heaven that you are still here.

You have helped me a lot in problems of past.
I hope our relationship will continue to last.
This friendship of ours that we have acquired
Is the kind of friendship I've always admired.

You've brightened the world of darkness around me.
The shine in your presence has taught me to see
More good in my friends, rather than bad;
More joy in my life, more happiness than sad.

Thank you for just simply being right there.
It makes me feel special to know that you care.
It helps me to know that in you I can confide,
Instead of keeping my problems all locked up inside.

Thank you so much, you're such a dear friend.
I know I couldn't ever even start to begin
To tell you how much you really mean to me,
But my life was imprisoned and you made me free.

I'm sorry this poem must come to an end,
But there's something important I must tell you my friend.
Whenever we're together my worries seem few,
And I cherish the friendship I have in you.

IF YOU ARE BLACK

When you get so up in mind, remember the way back.
If you become so dignified,
remember that you too are black.

Remember that we are the offspring of a loaded clipper ship,
And our ancestors tilled the soil and felt the sting of the whip.

Remember men have died so that men might carry on,
We must go forth, stepping on strong.

Remember we must unite all together
as one,
The beautiful people under the sun.

We must become educated so we will become equal with class.
Join hand in hand and sing
"free at last."

MOMENTS

They are many at the worst.
They are few at the best.
We will never learn to savor them at the times our desires are at their utmost peak.
They are destined to carry us longest without mercy, when we are deep in despair.
They carry us on golden tipped wings when we touch ecstasy, only to find reality is waiting to take us back.
We live our life.
We die our death,
by moments.

DREAMS

Dreams, the reality of night;
May possess anyone belonging to virtue or Vice,
It lingers in the mind
as fright or delight
For a year, a month, or until sight . . .

Steve Ettlinger

You opened up my eyes and let me see.
You opened up my heart and set it free.
You opened up my soul and I saw me.
You and I were meant to be.

You kissed away my sorrow and helped me see the day through.
You show me all the happiness and a lot of love too.
You do all the things that I like to do.
That's why I'm not surprised that I love you.

EVOLUTION=REVOLUTION

An asteroid, one of seventy thousand, blossoms and life forms. Then, one day, the supreme life is formed. Smart he is, and he progresses swiftly. But, then he acquires the potential to kill. He is no longer smart. His feeble mind cannot cope with this power. He kills and then kills again until one day there is an asteroid, one of seventy thousand.

LIFE'S TIME

Life comes and goes like dusk and dawn,
But when we're ready to live, Life's Time is gone.
We know it is short, but how do we use it?
We mess up Life's Time, and mostly abuse it.

Live life to it's fullest, make the most of each day.
And you'll find that Life's Time goes a longer way.
Experience it all, try things that are new.
But use Life's Time to benefit YOU!

Life's Time is precious, for that there's no doubt,
But use all that you can, 'cause Life's Time is running out.
Move on down the road, strive for what's best,
Because when you're on Life's Time, there's no time to rest.

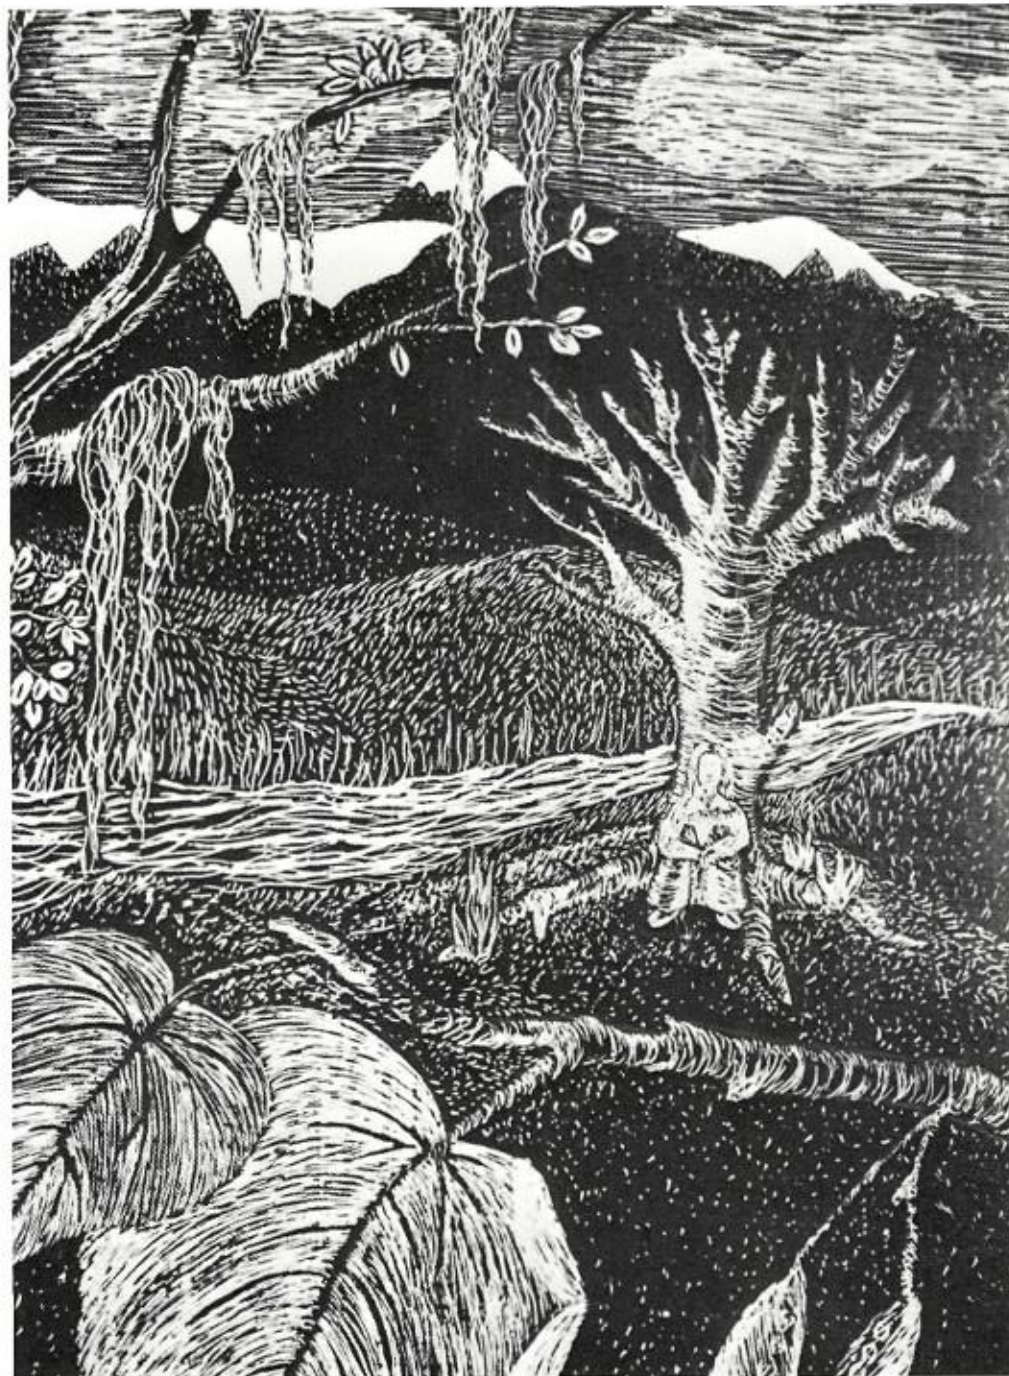

At the end of each day as you're closing your eyes,
Do you realize how fast that Life's Time flies?
Do you sleep and anticipate each new day....
Hoping tomorrow brings love and light to show the way?

As the years move ahead, and time is expending,
Do we realize that Life's Time is gradually ending?
Can you see the coming of dusk and the going of dawn?
Can you see that Life's Time is almost gone?

Have you gotten all that you wanted out of your life?
A whole lot of love and a small pinch of strife.
You better hurry, if you haven't, and get what you can,
Life's Time only contributes so much to each man.

Have you lived life to it's fullest; made the most of each day?
Did you find a light that would show you the way?
Did you experience it all; tried things that were new?
DID YOU USE LIFE'S TIME TO BENEFIT YOU?!

MIRAGE

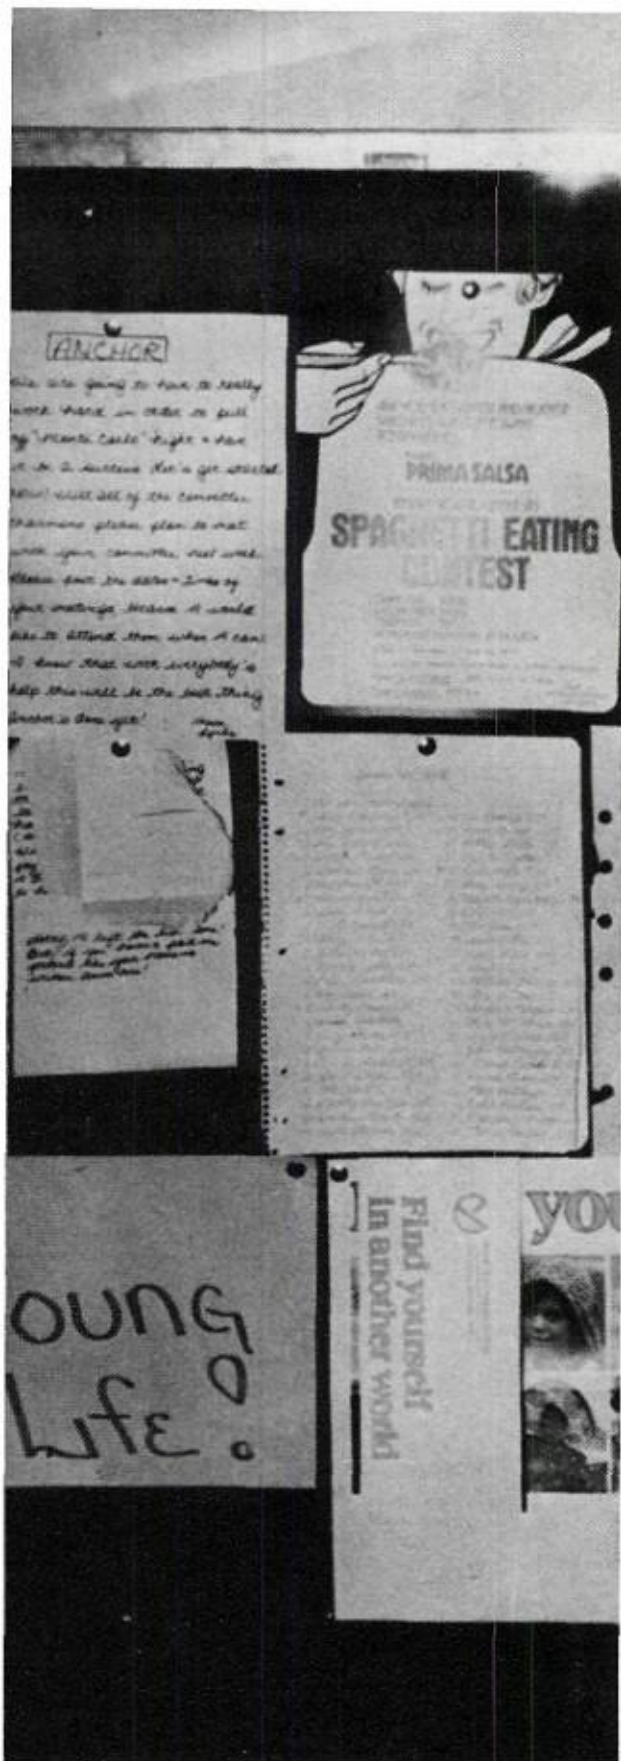

Beyond the desert rim
it cheers my way-Green laurel and a spring's enchancing shimmer;
The flickering promise hold defeat at bay,
Keeps hope from growing dimmer.

Courageously I plod with weary feet,
While visions of my paradise employ me:
Let me be credulous of its blithe deceit,
Lest fear and thirst destroy me.

Paw Print

Hard work, determination, and much effort go into the making of each issue of the Paw Print. It was especially difficult for this year's staff due to the lack of funds from the school, no photographer, and the minute size of the class. Yet these obstacles did not keep the class from making this year's Paw Print the best. Mrs. Kathy Rawls, sponsor, let the staff work in an independent atmosphere, but stressed quality over quantity from the staff on all areas. Cathy Jackson, this year's editor, was the mainstay of the staff and she has trained junior Carol Gordon to take over the editor's job for next year.

Science Fiction

"Captain Kirk please report to level A." This may be one of the many things heard at a science fiction club get-together. The club is open to all people interested in science fiction. During the year, they sponsored Chuck Williams in the Mr. Ugly Competition and Claire Williams in the Miss Wolfson Contest. If you enjoy science fiction, you enjoyed the science fiction club.

Young Life

Monday night means YOUNG LIFE to many Wolfson students. Why? Because it is a place to come to be with friends, be yourself, have a blast, and it's free! Young Life is open to all Wolfson students and has no official membership; you just come and you are a member. The club meetings are designed to help everyone have a great time whether it's in singing lively songs together or laughing uproariously at some crazy skit.

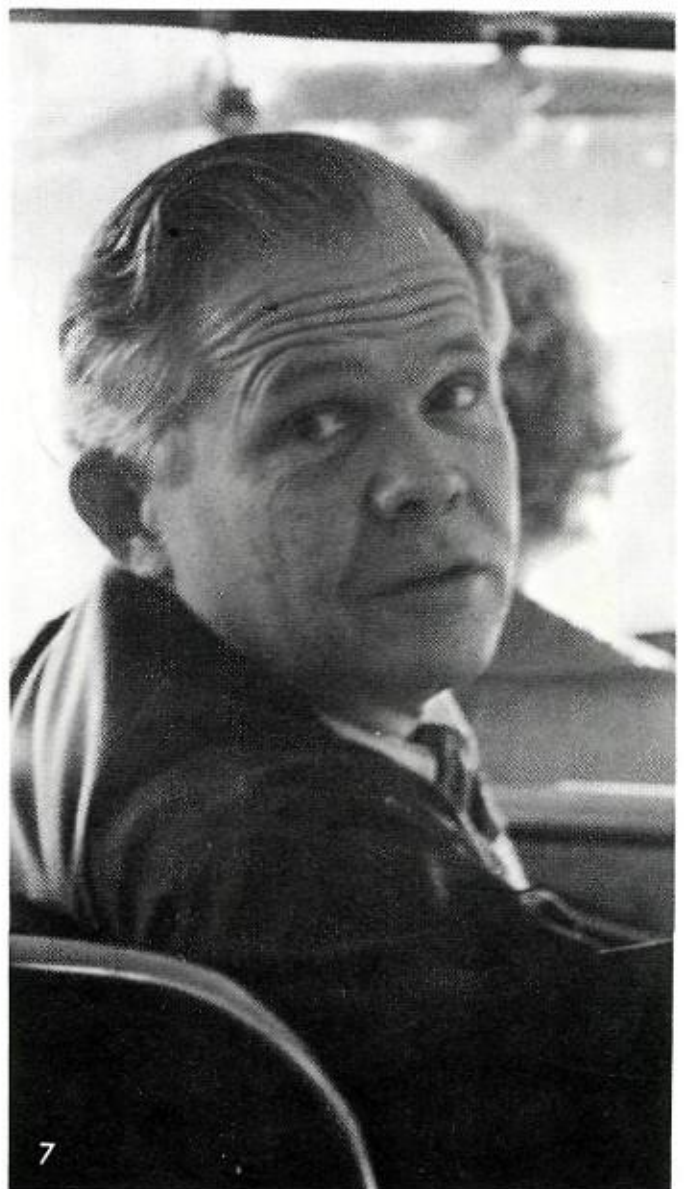

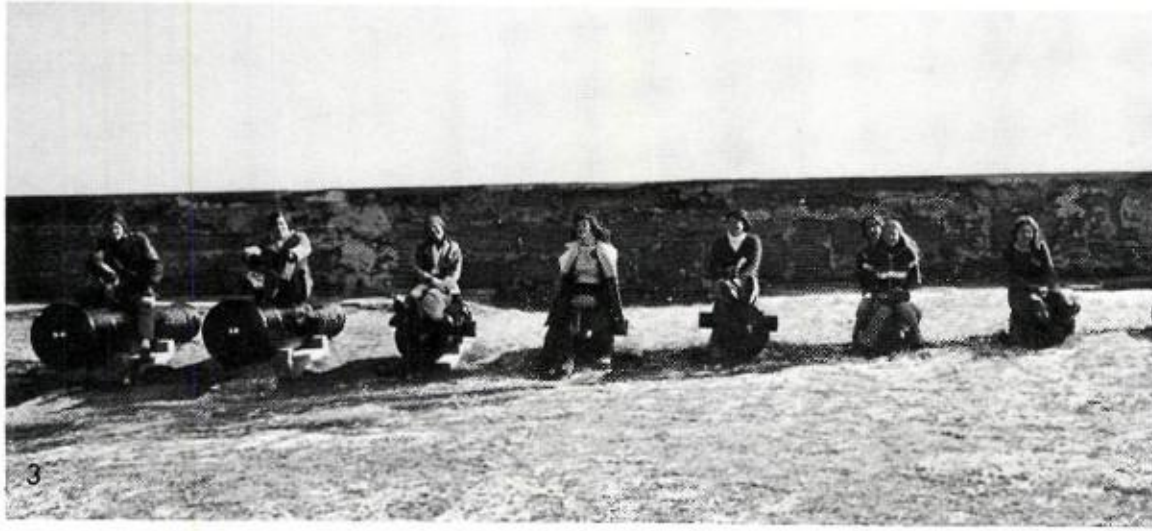

Mac Hammond, the club leader, always has something meaningful to say. He and all the other leaders, Melody, Lynn, Tommy, Joe, Hal, Gail, and Carolyn, help to make Young Life a very inspirational and fun experience. And everyone will remember the trip to Windy Gap during Christmas vacation.

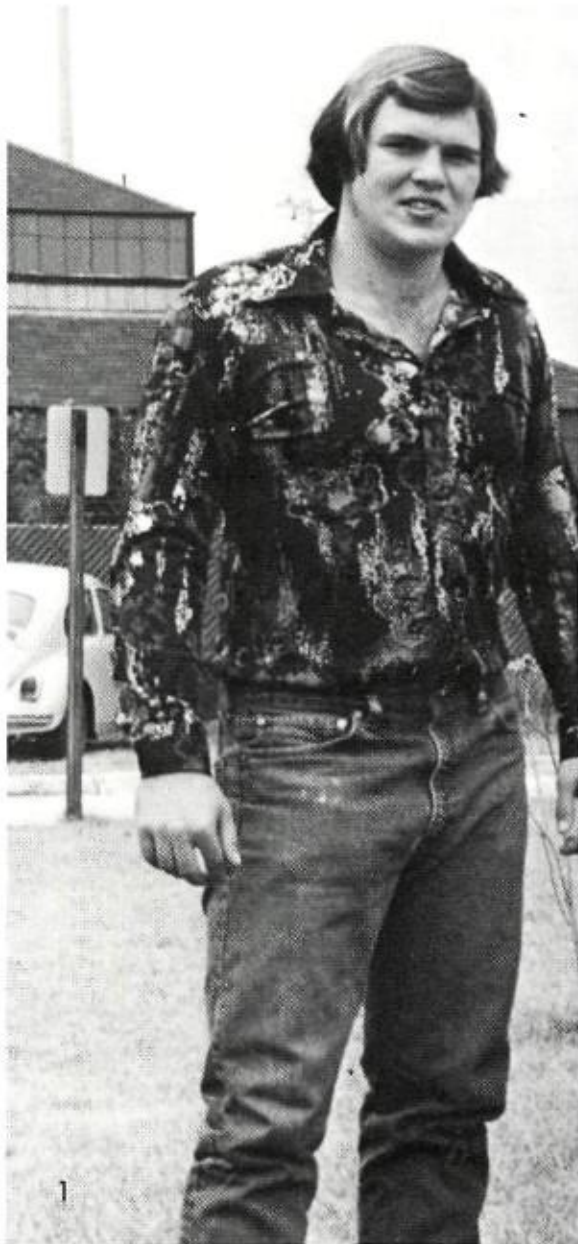

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club put together The Wonderful World of Ugliers, in which Joe Barton was named Mr. Ugly. The members of the club made their annual trip to St. Augustine, where they studied spanish culture, this year in the "blizzard". They also did something different this year by taking a weekend trip to Ybor City, which is the Cuban section of Tampa. The club earned money by having a car wash, garage sale and by presenting Mr. Ugly. Their sponsor was Mr. Winton.

Tau Tide

Tau combined school spirit, socializing, and leadership to give its members an activity-filled year.

Wolfgang

This year the new Wolfgang has improved their image and also the appearance of the school. They've cleaned the parking lot, the senior court yard, and painted the trash cans. To raise money for their projects and parties, they've held several bake sales during the year.

FACULTY

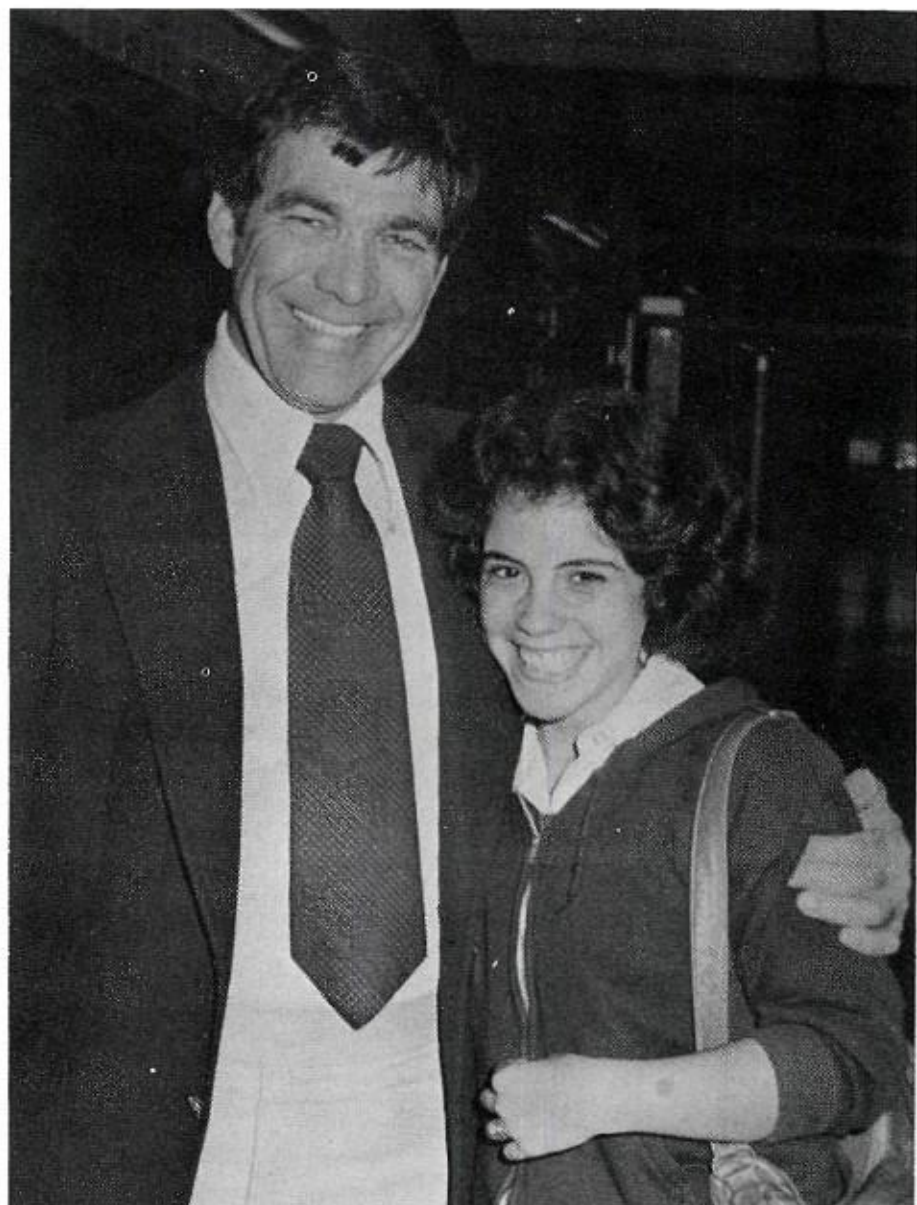

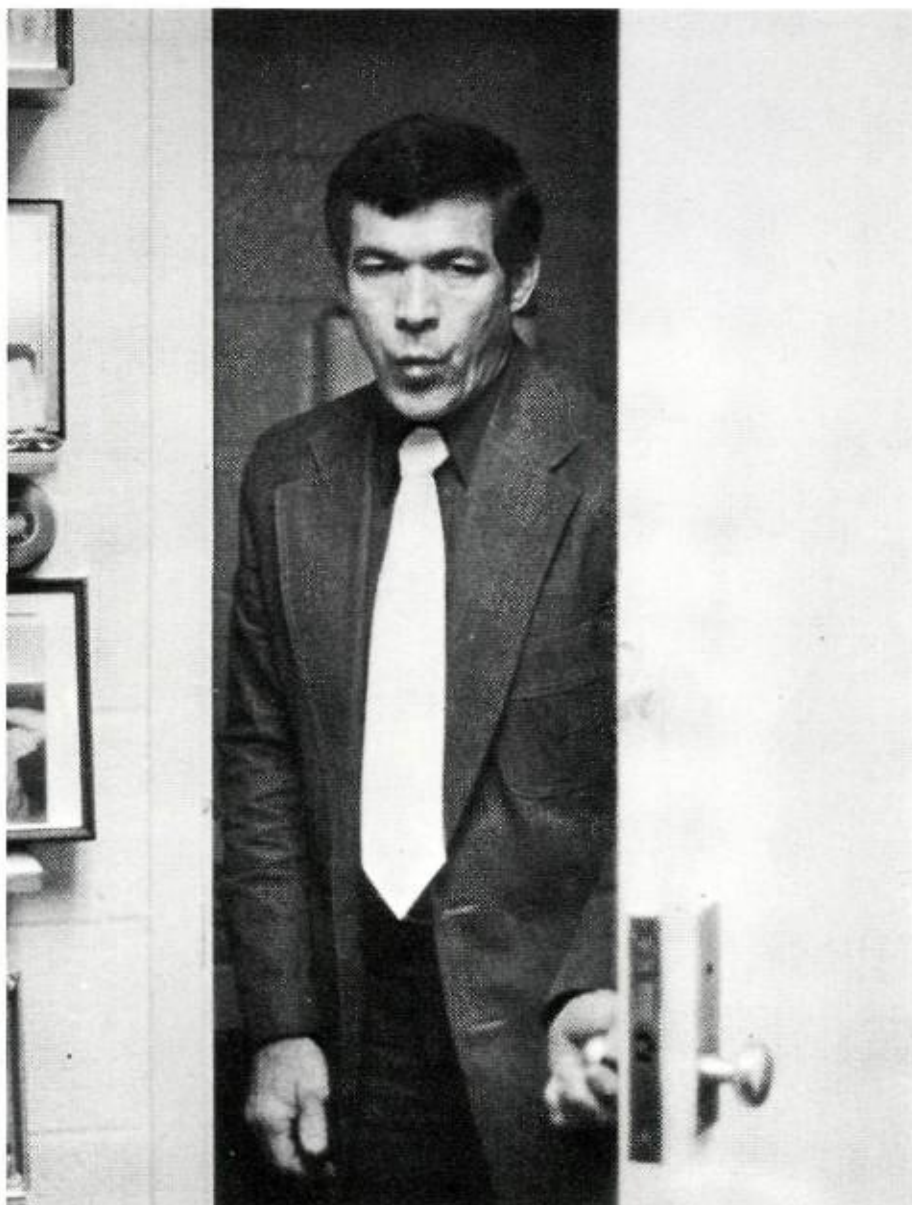

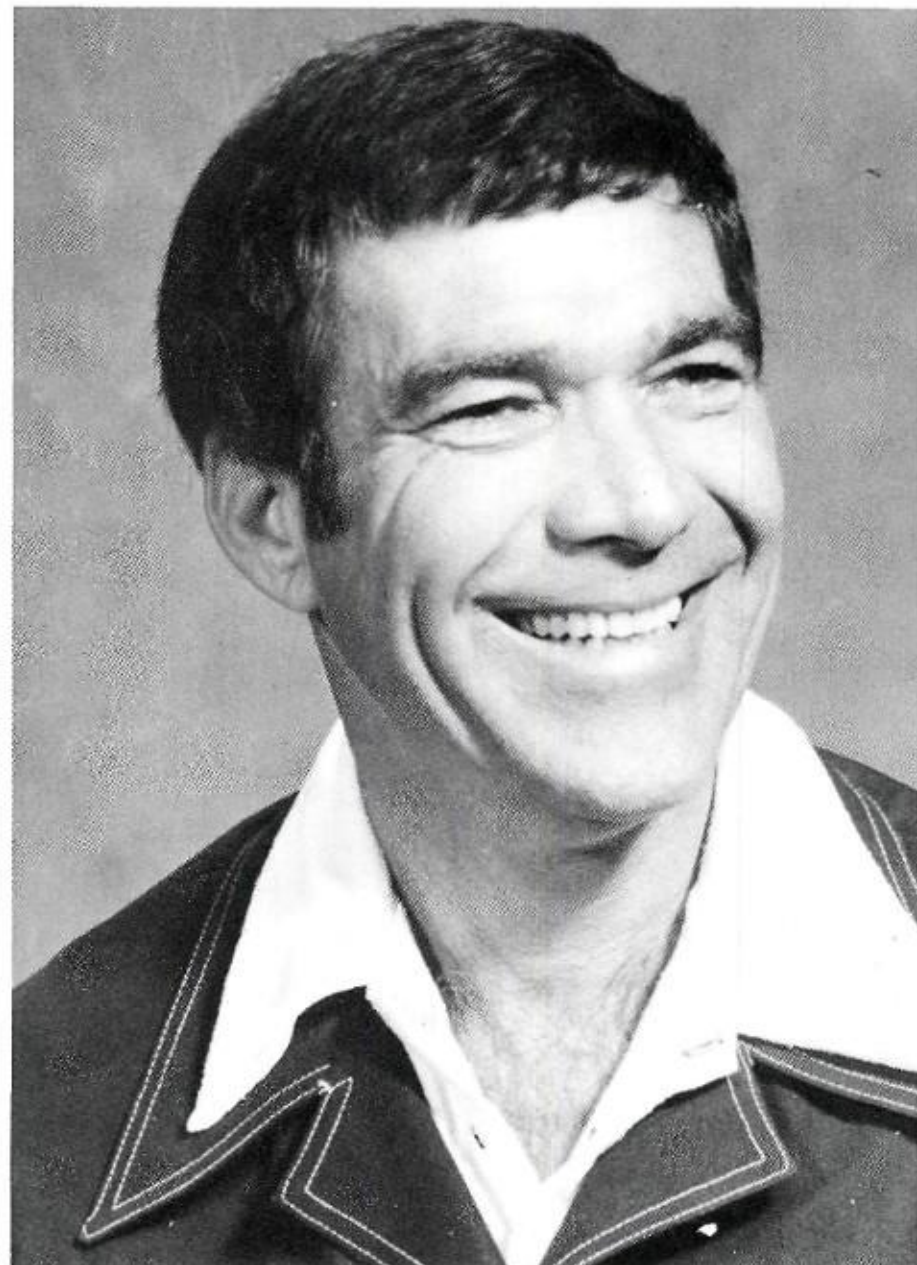

"As our leaders, the inner creations you possess should be expressed, shared and voiced so that everyone can join in and take a part for himself."

Guidance And Encouragement: W.C. 'Billy' Parker

Mr. Parker is a man of many talents. To run a school without too much conflict requires a man who is competent and able. He is authoritative and respected by everyone, but at the same time, he is a friend to anyone in need. His helpful hints and remarks either commend us on our successes or encourage us to correct our wrongdoings.

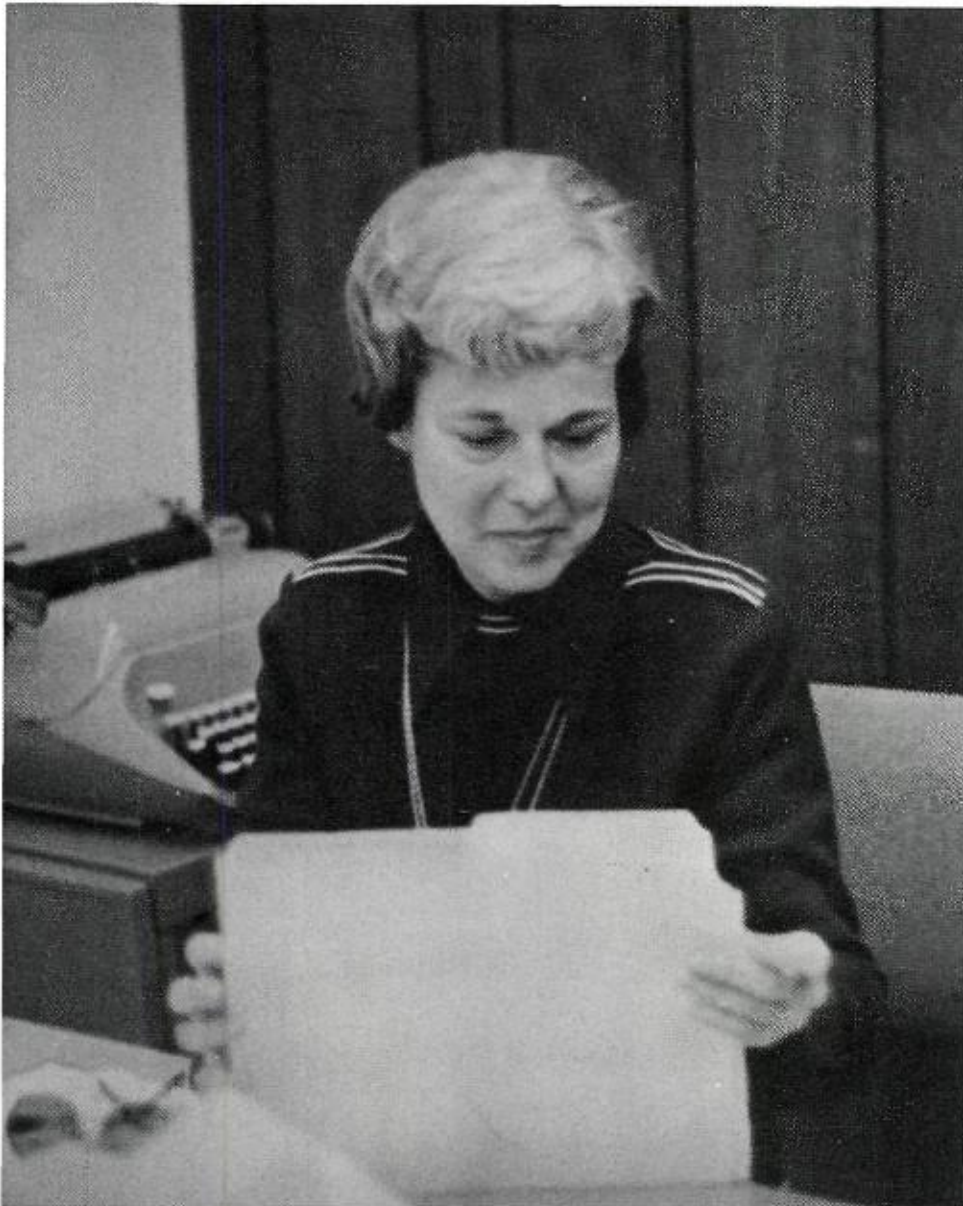

Where Cooperation Is Available: Jean Smith

If a little cooperation is needed, then Miss Smith is definitely the one to see. The minute she comprehends a problem, she begins working out a solution. She is always understanding and willing to help you with any difficult problem.

As soon as you enter her office, her warm smile is always accompanied by her kind words, and we're sure everyone will agree that this does help in keeping Wolfson's spirits high.

We, the yearbook staff, have put this book together for you. For you, with you and about you. We've toiled, we've tried, our hopes have been high and our expectations great. Taking those events from around us and using the words we thought would express them best, we've joined them together to become the product of our imaginations, our memories and our dreams.

Darryl,

I got tired of having people come up to me and bitch about the editorials signed "D.M." and thinking I wrote it. You are a very talented writer, and I will look you up in the future. Just try to follow my examples, or at least some of them. Good luck, future-editor, and I'll catch ya later.

Maybe next year we will get another class together. Keep up your good work with the paw print. Have a fun summer and I'll see ya next year. Love always

Dear Darryl,

So, you're a hot shot journalist this year. We haven't been as close this year as last year so I really do hope that we can schedule together next year. I'll be moving back to Briarwood during the summer and I'm really looking forward to you teaching me some of your fabulous techniques in tennis. Please come see me over the summer. I still value our friendship very much and have missed your company throughout the year. You

Darryl,
You sure have been a lot of help to me this year in Spanish II. You are really a great guy. I don't know if it's my place to say this but I think you are very handsome. I'm sure your next two years at Walden will be a lot of fun. I'll come and see you at Noble Remains over the summer. I like all your sporty shirts! Stay your same sweet self.

Darryl,

yo my Nig! I have enjoyed being in Spanish class with you. It just would not be the same without your intelligence. ^{not} of the Spanish language. I'm glad I had a dude like you to be a friend while going through Mr. Winter's Bull crap. Be a good kid this summer and go easy on the women, you gotta make 'em last you know what I mean. (they hard to find, especially the good ones) well that's about it hope to see you next year.

Darryl, I'm sorry I didn't get to know you better what a terrific guy you are! I know you stay a party every day & you are! I always look in a great way of success in all summer & your hand & good luck

Darryl, It's been a great year, I hope there are a few more in store! I hope we can get some maybe possibly. Now, Darryl I do not want you to do too much drinking or partying. Keep it to a limit. I am sure I'll see you in a great summer, I will come take you out in 2402 car - (if my Dad doesn't sell it) Be sweet & keep cool

As we stand here expectantly looking forward into tomorrow, we need to remember those moments of yesterday and reflect on them and the cherished memories they have created.

We have grown together, learned together, experienced, laughed and cried together. We have succeeded in becoming closer to those goals and dreams that will someday transform us into the individuals we so desire to be.

There is now an ever-changing tide of challenges and events that will never allow us to remain still. It will demand from us imagination and progress, and the time shall quickly pass.

Tomorrow, we will continue on, some of us grateful and some of us frightened at what the future holds. The end has now come to a very wonderful part of our lives and we will always remain proud for being another graduating class in the life of Samuel W. Wolfson Senior High.

Darryl,

Well-meeting you was a good experience. I had heard so much about this "Darryl guy" and I just had to see if you were really good looking, sweet, and if you did have a great body, Well believe me it is true.

You really have made me laugh while eating lunch. You just sit there and look around and say nothing. You did disappoint me when you didn't take me to the prom but maybe next year.

This has been one fast year and I hope your sophomore year has been as fun as mine was. Just think 2 more years and you will be facing the "cold cruel world". I have only one more year.

Watch out when you get your liscense because I just might be the guy behind you with the "blue lights" on.

Call me some time over the summer. Stay sweet and be good.
